SAN DIEGO ROWING CLUB

Possibly the host club shouldn't get to boasting—they're decidedly the under-dog today! San Diego Rowing Club joined the Pacific

LONG BEACH ROWING ASSOCIATION

The conclusion of the Olympic Games left this Southern California City rowing conscious, indeed. Their Boat House and Course are the Olympic Marine Stadium.

Presided by Keith Enloe (former Washington sweepster) with Dave Bryant as Secretary; Pete Archer, Captain; Fred Wood, Skipper and with many schools and colleges thereabouts actually in competitive shell-rowing—imagine the Long Beach club picture ten years hence. Perfect course, model boat house—splendid material. Their doubles crew should cop today! A rare start this three year old has made!

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

The San Diego Rowing Club, sponsor of these events, is especially indebted to the staff of the United States Naval Training Station for their excellent co-operation toward making the regatta a success. With their customary hospitality, they have provided the course, training quarters and every possible convenience for participants and spectators. Thanks!

SOUTH END ROWING CLUB

In San Francisco, or anywhere, those four words stand for the best in rowing, swimming, hand ball and good fellowship. Sixty-one years of achievement behind them—"South End Rowing Club was formed in 1874 after four unknowns defeated a previously unbeaten San Francisco Crew. The followers of this group formed the S. E. R. C. to finance a new boat for the victors." Time was, when S. E. R. C., like Alameda, swept the boards, winning all five championship events, as in 1917 and 1918.

A grand line of scullers and crew men have come from this peppery Club—for instance, today they present a Senior Crew, three of the four members of which rowed on the "Cal" Olympic Champ "8" in '32, who went on to take the National Four-Oared Championship at Chicago in 1933 and Coast Championship in 1934—Bobbie Cumming from '28 to '33 the Coast Lightweight Champion Sculler (unseated last year by San Diego's Woodie Wilson) and Bob Jensen the 1934 winner of both the Junior and Senior Sculling Championship titles.

ARIEL ROWING CLUB

The Ariel Rowing Club of San Francisco was organized in 1870, the oldest of the boat clubs on the coast. Eugene Flanders has served as Secretary for over sixty years. Because of the progress and development of the San Francisco Harbor during this long period, the Club has been compelled to erect, at different times, several new houses.

The Club has held many championships in past years. Henry C. Peterson carried the A. R. C. colors in races in England, Australia and completely over the United States and Canada. They were also carried in many races by the only family of four racing brothers of real championship caliber (Charles, Henry, Jim and Edward Wilson) rowing in singles, doubles and four-oared crews.

Present Club officers are: President, E. S. Sullivan; vice-president, J. C. Wolk; secretary, Eugene Flanders; treasurer, E. D. Sullivan; captain, J. McCormick; board of directors, Senator James A. Wilson, Ed Starke, Pete Beasley, Wm. De Mattei, Charles Andrus.

ALAMEDA BOATING CLUB

Located on the Oakland Estuary right near the spot where Ky Ebright and Russ Nagler produce their California Wonder Crews—Alameda, going strong before "Cal" took to rowing, was quick to sense the value of competition. They've profited by it heaps! Lee Cavanaugh, P.A.A.O. Rowing Commissioner, is largely responsible for the present rowing activities of the "A. B. C." His crews are ALWAYS contenders. Watch his Junior Crew today!

DOLPHIN SWIMMING & BOATING CLUB

The Dolphin Club stands out as a most colorful organization dating back to its foundation in 1878. The Club was founded by six members of the "Turnverein," interested in water sports and strengthening the ties of good fellowship and loyalty.

They've had, year after year, more than their share of star oarsmen, Tom Keenan, Charles Farrell, Alec Pape, Steve Vicini, Bill Harris, Tom Harris, Alec McKewan, Gus Bertrand, Jerry Kenniff, Bill Johnston, Dave Cameron, Fulton Figone and Bill Giovannoni.

They are here today with a complete list of entries headed by Captain Jim Albert and coached by the old time Champion Sculler Lawton Hughes.

Del Rey Crews) so consistently that they gave up rowing.

Since 1913 the South has won the Senior Crew championship thirteen times (eight times in a row (from 1925 to 1932). They've won the Club championship (most points scored) continuously since 1925, except for 1930.

They are all local athletes, recruited from shops and stores, invariably without collegiate rowing experience; they've been shown their oarsmanship by a great procession of amateur coaches: Max Winter, Mort Fowler, Milton Epstein, Lou Almgren, and this year's staff, Bill Fisher and Andy Borthwick.

San Diego has produced it's full share of outstanding oarsmen, among them: Gerald Baldwin, Lew Allen, Edgar Dodge, Harry Vaughn, Harvey Slocum, Max Winter, Bill Sutor, Fred Conner, Howard Reupke, Dewey Freeberg, Chas. Springer, John Neyenesch, De Graff Austin, Bud Coggshall, Herb Henschel, Charlie Lentz.

The Club has a membership of nearly one thousand—only Detroit tops this boat club in membership in this country. Hand ball, swimming, sailing, sun-bathing, ping-pong, nite ball, bowling, basketball, chess and horse shoes are included to make up the other sports engaged in at the San Diego Rowing Club.
